

SPIRITUAL INVENTORY

Revised 1-5-10

Demon spirits (the “powers” of evil that Scripture says we wrestle against) have descriptive names or titles that signify their functions, or the areas in which they exert their influence over us. Thus, many evil spirit's names, or the descriptive titles that they may answer to, are the names of the human emotions that they violate or manipulate for their evil purposes. In addition to such “evil emotions,” demon spirits may also encourage compulsions, addictions and irrational, destructive behaviors. God's Word teaches us that when our lives are pleasing to the Lord, that we are surrounded by a spiritual “hedge” of protection. We see this clearly portrayed in Satan's complaint to the Lord that God's “hedge of protection” made Job impervious to the Devil's attacks.

"Your hedge of protection has kept Job and his home and his property from all harm. You have prospered him in everything he does--look how rich he is! No wonder he worships you!"
(JOB 1:10)

This “hedge” of divine protection, however, can be breached, or broken through by involvement in occultic activities, illicit sexual intercourse, rebellion against God-ordained authority figures, unforgiveness, and certain other acts of willful disobedience to God and persistence in sin. In any such case, this breach in the hedge of divine protection makes us vulnerable to “demonic influence” in our lives. This is precisely what Scripture warns us about in Ephesians 4:27 where we are warned not to “give the devil an opportunity against us,” for when we do, we can be certain that “the serpent will bite us!”

"Whoever breaks through the hedge will be bitten by a serpent."
(Ecclesiastes 10:8)
